FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wizardly World of Kent Event Date Set for Sat., July 27, 2019

Kent, Ohio – Main Street Kent is excited to announce the Wizardly World of Kent event, to take place in downtown Kent on Sat., July 27, 2019. This event will feature costume contests for kids and adults, live music, crafts, activities, photo booths, games, vendors, face painting, and more. Many downtown businesses will offer activities and special menu items in the spirit of the event. The Hometown Bank Plaza, Dan Smith Community Park and other public areas will be home to a variety of free activities and entertainment throughout the day. The event planning committee is working on event layout, entertainment, activities, and a magical day for visitors and residents of downtown Kent. Vendor applications will be available beginning February 1, 2019 on the Main Street Kent website:

<http://www.mainstreetkent.org/events/wizardly-world-of-kent/>. Vendors must offer handcrafted items consistent with the event theme. A jury will select vendors for this year's event and all decisions made by the jury will be final. Food vendors will be selected local businesses; applications will not be accepted for food vending. Information about road closures, event times, etc. will be shared at a later date. Sponsorship opportunities are available; for information please contact Main Street Kent at 330-677-8000 or info@mainstreetkent.org.

Main Street Kent is a non-profit organization focused on the revitalization of downtown Kent. It is an affiliate of the national Main Street program and the Heritage Ohio program.
